

Course Objectives

- To enable managers to apply sound management principle to manage Health and Safety effectively and to demonstrate their competencies in successfully completing a practical and written exam
- To build up an in-depth awareness of Health & Safety practices, its implementation and the legal aspects applied to the workplace
- To understand Health & Safety risk, its assessment and the use of accident investigation and prevention

Location:

NLT Training or employers premises if suitable

Duration:

4 Days

Designed For

Managers working in construction who are not experts at Health and Safety but require training. This course gives a more in-depth look at Health & Safety than the basic Health & Safety Course.

Course Content

- The importance of managing safely
- Legislation
- Risk assessment and safety management
- Reactive monitoring
- Active monitoring
- Controlling common workplace hazards
- Human factors
- Waste and environmental management