

HEALTH AND SAFETY IOSH MANAGING SAFELY

Course Objectives

- To enable managers to apply sound management principle to manage Health and Safety effectively and to demonstrate their competencies in successfully completing a practical and written exam
- To build up an in-depth awareness of Health & Safety practices, its implementation and the legal aspects applied to the workplace
- To understand Health & Safety risk, its assessment and the use of accident investigation and prevention

Location:

NLT Training or employers premises if suitable

Duration:

4 Days

Designed For

Managers who are not experts at Health and Safety but require training. This course gives a more in-depth look at Health & Safety than the basic Health & Safety Course.

Course Content

- General approach to safety
- Importance of Managing Safely
- Understanding why incidents occur
- Applying management principles to safety and health
- Assessing risk and risk control
- Behaviour factors
- Health and Safety responsibilities
- Legal framework
- Communication skills
- Identifying workplace hazards
- Commonly occurring hazards
- Health and Safety management systems
- Protecting the environment

Multi choice test & work place project based on workplace hazards and completion of a risk assessment.

www.nlt-training.co.uk

T: 0845 40 80 378

E: sales@nlt-training.co.uk

