

Course Objectives

- To enable Individuals to apply sound-working principles to Health and Safety effectively and to demonstrate their competence's in successfully completing a practical and written exam, to the performance criteria specified by IOSH
- Course certificated by Institute of Occupational Safety & Health

Location:

NLT Training or employers premises if suitable

Duration:

1 Day

Designed For

Employees and people with Health & Safety responsibilities, who are not experts in Health and Safety, but are required to work safely and effectively

Course Content

- Introduction to health and safety
- Reactive monitoring
- Identifying workplace common hazards
- Improving Safety performance
- Risk assessment and risk control
- Health and safety legislation
- Common hazards
- Active monitoring
- Safety management systems
- Protecting your environment
- Hazards (client specific)